JUDGE DAY AT HOME

President of the Late Spanish Peace Commission at Canton.

HAS NO POLITICAL DESIRES

Authorizes the Statement That Under No Circumstances Will He Be a Candidate for Governor of Ohio—Ridicules the $100,000 Salary Proposition—Little Opportunity for Pleasure.

Canton, Ohio, Dec. 26.—Judge Day, president of the late peace commission, and Mrs. Day reached their Canton home in time to take Christmas dinner with the family. They arrived yesterday morning over the Pennsylvania railroad. There was no formal greeting arranged for them, but a committee of the Stark county bar, several personal friends and members of their family were at the station to meet them.

The Judge is in excellent health and the trip abroad has evidently been beneficial. Mrs. Day is also in excellent health, and notwithstanding seasickness on the return voyage comes to her home in much better health than when she left it.

Judge Day, when asked as to his plans for the future, said he expects to remain in Canton and resume the practice of law in the firm of which he was a member before entering the cabinet of President McKinley. The work of the committee ended when the treaty was delivered to the president and he does not expect to visit Washington again in connection with any duties on that commission.

Asked as to whether he had any desires which the state of Ohio could satisfy, he said: "If you refer to political desires, I have not. My only ambition is to be allowed to pursue the practice of my profession."

Later in the conversation he authorized the direct statement that under no circumstances would he be a candidate for governor, as has been reported during his absence in Paris.

While he talked freely on many matters connected with his work in Paris, Judge Day did not feel at liberty to give an interview in detail on the work of the commission. He said the talk of $100,000 compensation for the commissioners, or of any sum approaching that amount was ridiculous and preposterous.

The president fixes the compensation of the commissioners and none of them, it is safe to say, accepted the duties as a speculation. None of them has an idea of a large fee such as would have been paid had they performed the duties in the capacity of regularly retained attorneys. There is no actual precedent on which to base an estimate, but the prediction is ventured that the compensation of the commissioners will not exceed $15,000 each and reasonable expenses incurred on the trip and in Paris. These expenses, however, will not include those incurred for the witness and flowers are the poetry of the earth; babies the sunsets of humanity. Banish the smiles, the dimples and the laughter of childhood and the world becomes a barren wilderness, inhabited by savages. Woman's ultimate mission, duty and joy on earth are comprised in the one word, "Motherhood." Multitudes of women fall of this mission because of weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism. They do not understand that disorders of this description unfit them for wifehood and motherhood, and as a consequence are careless and neglectful of their health in a womanly way. Others who realize the truth, shrink from the "examinations" and "local treatments" insisted upon by the average physician. families of the attaches of the commission, because all such went on the journey entirely independent of the commission and were in no way a charge upon the official party.

A number of friends have called on Judge Day since his return and to them he has talked entertainingly. The work at Paris was felt by the commissioners to be arduous, and left little or no opportunity for pleasures which the judge would have been glad to have enjoyed in a city which impressed him with its beauty and historic interest. The French government treated the commissioners very well, and the room in which negotiations were conducted was a magnificent one, well adapted to the work in hand. There were but two critical periods in the negotiations, the first regarding the Cuban debt, which was an open question for more than a month during which time the Americans never swerved from the position presented to the Spaniards. The other was upon the Philippine cession and after the American had reached a conclusion in their own councils as to the concessions that could be granted, there was no deviation and the Spaniards finally accepted.

REPEATS HIS CHARGES.

Colonel Ray Sticks to His Assertion. Valiente Furnished Arms to Cubans. Santiago de Cuba, Dec. 26.—Lieutenant Colonel Henry Ray, who had reported to General Wood that Colonel Francisco Valiente, chief of gendarmes, had been among the insurgents and that several bands of robbers were operating in the neighborhood of Guantanamo, arrived here yesterday.

He repeats his charges against Colonel Valiente, declaring that they are well founded. He admits that Colonel Valiente was the first Cuban officer who nominally disarmed his men, merely requesting permission to guard the arms with a squad of his own troops. This request was granted by Major Harris, representing Lieutenant-Colonel Ray at Sagua de Tanamo.

According to Colonel Ray, Valiente, before starting for Santiago, turned over to several Cuban captains the 600 rifles that were stacked by his men when they were disarmed. This fact was only recently reported to Colonel Ray, who claims that this explains the existence of the troublesome bands of robbers who have infested the districts around Guantanamo.

PLEA FOR UNITY.

Rev. Dr. J. I. Vance Wants an American Presbyterian Church. Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 26.—Rev. Dr. J. I. Vance, of the First Presbyterian church, in his sermon yesterday urged the wiping out of the terms "north" and "south" applied to the church, and saying: "I wonder if the time is not at hand for the effacement of geographical marks from the name of our beloved Presbyterian church in America. She should be the first to put into practice the gospel she preaches. And yet it must be admitted that while Mason and Dixon's line has disappeared from the geography of citizenship, it survives in the geography of the church. I speak today for a Presbyterianism that shall no more be marked 'north' or 'south,' but whose territorial boundaries shall be co-terminus with the uttermost limits of the republic, an American Presbyterian church."

Well-Known Chicago Attorney Marries a Millionaire's Daughter. Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 26.—Miss Clara Sutro, daughter of the late Adolph Sutro, the famous San Francisco mining man, mayor and millionaire, and William J. English of Chicago, were quietly married yesterday at the residence of Right Rev. Bishop Montgomery, who officiated. The brother of the bride was the only witness to the ceremony.

Mr. English is a widely known attorney, being a member of the firm of English & Heffernan of Chicago. He is also a member of the Chicago school board and is ex-president of the Chicago Fair association.

RIOT AT A FIRE. Negroes and Whites Indulge in a Fight and Two Are Killed. Dallas, Dec. 26.—A crowd of several thousand whites and blacks, gathered by the burning of a saloon building, became involved in a race riot here, and before the battle was ended two persons had been killed, five were seriously wounded and a dozen others slightly injured. In addition one man fell dead on the sidewalk during the fire and a woman was fatally injured in jumping from a window of the burning building.

WILL NOT ABDICATE. Don Carlos Says He Will Fulfill His Role to the End. London, Dec. 26.—The Venice correspondent of the Times says: "Don Carlos, who is in perfect health, desires me to deny absolutely the report that he contemplates abdicating. On the contrary, he says, he is more resolved than ever to fulfill his role to the end. He authorizes me to assert that he has asked no audience of the pope and has requested nothing else of his holiness."

HANGED BY A MOB.

Marion Tyler Lynched by Masked Men at Scottsburg.

Scottsburg, Ind., Dec. 26.—The body of Marion Tyler was found hanging from a tree here Saturday. A mob of 100 men appeared at the jail and demanded the keys of Sheriff Gobin, who refused to surrender them, but his wife surrendered them later, when the mob threatened violence. As Tyler was brought out of his cell he begged the mob to hang him in the jail, but he was taken across the street to the courthouse yard and quickly strung up. Tyler was in jail on a charge of assaulting and injuring his wife a few weeks since. He parted from his wife in Indianapolis, and shortly after the separation came here and went to the home of her parents, where she was staying, and attacked her, injuring her seriously, but not fatally, and attempted to kill himself. Both Mrs. Tyler and her husband had recovered from these injuries.

Tyler was to have been tried in January for his assault on his wife, and the people here did not dream that the law would not be allowed to take its course. Tyler was taken out quietly and the noose adjusted about his neck. He was told to pray quickly and in a very low tone of voice. He was dazed by the unexpected appearance of his executioners and unable to do anything.

This is the first hanging in the history of Scott county, either by legal methods or by lynchers.

Tyler's parents, residing at McLeansboro, Ill., were notified. The friends of Tyler claim that his untimely execution was an outrage upon justice and it is probable that the lynchers, who were masked, will be indicted as rapidly as their names can be ascertained.

Crushed by Electric Cars. Elkhart, Ind., Dec. 26.—William Hozley of this city, a lineman on the Indiana electric railroad, was crushed to death between two cars here Saturday evening. He leaves a wife and three children. The road has been in operation but a few days.

FREIGHT WRECK

Nine Men Injured in a Collision at Lexington, Ky.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 26.—The worst wreck in this vicinity in ten years occurred in the suburbs of the city near Pepper's distillery yesterday afternoon. A Louisville and Nashville yard engine and Chesapeake and Ohio engine No. 90, pulling an extra freight train, collided and as a result nine men are badly injured, two probably fatally, and both engines demolished. The yard engine was backing down in the yards and the freight train was coming from Louisville. The Louisville and Nashville engine was completely demolished. The Chesapeake and Ohio engine was run back through the tender and the whole front broken in.

All the Louisville and Nashville employees jumped and all were injured, two probably fatally. The Chesapeake and Ohio men remained at their posts and were not seriously hurt. Yard Clerk Hornbrook and Foreman Morrissey, on the Louisville and Nashville engine, will almost certainly die.

CHRISTMAS IN CUBA

United States Troops Have Extra Spreads Out of Company Funds.

161ST HAS AN XMAS TREE

It Was of the Cactus Variety With a Present for Everybody Stuck on the Points—General Lee's Turkeys Were Too Thin to Feast Upon—Officers Indulge in Festivities.

Havana, Dec. 26.—The United States troops began last evening a regular patrol of the city of Havana in order to guard against possible disorders. The day, however, passed in comparative quiet. The band issued on Friday by Captain General Jimenez Castellanos, prohibiting crowds from assembling in the streets, has been generally observed.

Christmas at Camp Quemados was as lively as the troops could make it with slender materials. Turkeys at $7 a piece were scarce and everybody said that, with the heat at a summer temperature and the hedgerows brilliant with flowers, the day did not seem much like Christmas.

All the company messes of the Fortyninth Iowa, the First North Carolina, the Fourth Virginia, the Second Illinois and the One Hundred and Sixty-first Indiana regiments had extra "spreads" out of company funds, with gifts from well to do members. The army ration was supplemented by fruit, canned goods, sweet potatoes and some times chicken. The Sixth Missouri regiment, the last to arrive, had no chance to prepare an extra dinner; so the men dined on fresh beef, rice and beans. One battalion reached camp yesterday, the other two marching today a distance of eight miles over a dusty road.

All the regimental bands played and the men were granted leave within a mile radius of the camp. Company F, of the One Hundred and Sixty-first Indiana regiment, had a cactus tree with a present for everybody stuck on the points, as for instance, hard tack, beans, salt pork and candles. The officers of the One Hundred and Sixty-first Indiana indulged, after dinner, in songs and speech making, with several solo dances. At El Vedado, the Eighth and Tenth regular infantry regiment dined well at the expense of the company funds.

Major General Lee and his staff partook of a modest dinner. General Lee had a number of live turkeys available, but as the birds were very lean he decided to keep them on the chance of improvement for the New Year's feast after the flag-raising. General Lee spent most of the day on horseback studying the best route for the New Year's day parade. The streets are too narrow to allow the troops to march past the palace, so that the route will probably be through the Prado and Central park to Cerro, the Havana suburb. General Lee expects to have 11,000 men, including the Cubans, in the military procession.

Major General Butler will go to Matanzas and Cienfuegos tonight on official business. The American troops are about to take possession of the San Ambrosio hospital. C. S. Beaver, the United States postal agent in Havana, has complained to the postmaster general of the irregularity in the arrival of the mails from the United States.

XMAS AT WASHINGTON.

President and Family Spent a Quiet Day With Friends. Washington, Dec. 26.—Christmas was observed very quietly in Washington. The weather was cool and bracing.

In the presidential circle, the day was a very quiet one. The president and Mrs. McKinley have several friends from Ohio stopping at the white house and with them about a dozen others, formerly living in their state, the Christmas dinner was enjoyed. During the evening Secretary and Mrs. Gage and Postmaster General and Mrs. Emory Smith called and spent some time socially at the executive mansion. The president and Mrs. McKinley took advantage of the fine weather and went out for a drive during the afternoon.

The president, accompanied by Mr. James Barber, Mrs. McKinley's nephew, attended divine services in the Metropolitan church in the morning, and listened to a sermon by the Rev. Dr. Bristol, who in the course of his talk said:

"This nation has presented to an oppressed people, the unspeakable gift of freedom, yes, and to the world it has given a larger liberty. God's Christmas gift of freedom has come to the suffering and wronged through the agency of a nation that was obedient to the heavenly call, and had caught the spirit of liberty and helpfulness sent forth from angelic lips—'good will toward men.' It was not hatred or ill-will toward any nation that caused this country to unsheath the sword of war. It was good will toward the suffering and the oppressed that inspired us to battle and victory."

"Good will has been established in our own land, from north to south and from east to west. The angels of our better nature have been reconciling enemies, obliterating the wounds and scars of war and strife and making the stars of the old flag of freedom to shine with the new lustre, while every stripe has been cleansed from every stain. North and south together sing at this Christmas time as they have not sung since we were a nation, blessed song of peace and good will."

Weather. Indiana—Threatening weather and warmer in northern portions.

DR. JOHN B. HAMILTON

Ex-Surgeon of the United States Marine Hospital Dead at Elgin, Ill.

Chicago, Dec. 26.—Dr. John B. Hamilton, ex-surgeon general of the United States Marine hospital service, died in Elgin, Ill., Saturday night. For over a year he had been superintendent of the State Asylum for the Insane at Elgin, and it was within the walls of the institution that he breathed his last. It has been expected for over a week that his death would come at almost any time, as he was given up a week ago by his physicians. While on a visit to the east, two weeks since, Dr. Hamilton was attacked by a severe cold, and in a few days peritonitis developed. In spite of everything that could be done he grew worse rapidly, and on Dec. 18 it was decided by Dr. Nicholson Senn that an operation was necessary to save the patient's life. The operation was performed, and at its conclusion Dr. Senn stated that in his opinion Dr. Hamilton had no chance of recovery. He rallied slightly and then began gradually sinking until death. Dr. John B. Hamilton was born in Jersey county, Ill., in 1847 and graduated from the Rush Medical college in 1869. In 1874 he was appointed assistant surgeon in the United States army and in 1876 entered the Marine hospital service. In June, 1891, he resigned his commission and returned to the ranks.

CRIPPLES MECCA.

They Can Be Found on All Street Corners in Washington.

Washington, Dec. 26.—This city must be a generous place, for it seems to be the Mecca of physical misfortune. There is an army of cripples which rarely fails to impress the visitor. They stand on every corner and seem to represent almost every conceivable calamity which man can survive. They sell, or try to sell, pencils, shoe-strings and other small articles, and in some manner manage to exist. No one knows where they eat or where they sleep, but they are always ready for business, and a nickel dropped into the shrunken palm of the poor fellow who tediously wriggles his way along Pennsylvania avenue selling collar-buttons, will call forth more signs of gratitude and make a man feel that he is of more account to the world than many dollars expended elsewhere. These men are not injured in Washington, but throughout the country, and in some way learn that Washington is a generous field and come hither.

ANGLO-AMERICAN

Demonstration at a Banquet to Lieutenant General Sir Francis Grenfell.

Cairo, Dec. 26.—A farewell banquet was tendered last evening to Lieutenant General Sir Francis Grenfell, the recently appointed governor of Malta, who now retires from the supreme command of the Anglo-Egyptian forces in Egypt. The presence of Thomas S. Harrison, United States agent and general consul, and Ethelbert Watts, United States vice consul general, led to an Anglo-American demonstration. General Grenfell and James E. Connell Rodd, secretary of legation at the British agency, spoke warmly of Anglo-Saxon friendship. Mr. Harrison, who was received with immense enthusiasm, made a stirring speech, sparkling with humor, in the course of which he reciprocated their friendly expressions.

At the same time Nulty shot himself through the head and was taken to a hospital, and it is believed he will die. Nulty was formerly a suitor of the girl, but recently they quarreled.

Thirsty Men Could Not Get a Drink.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 26.—Yesterday was the first day in the history of Lexington that thirsty men could not get a drink. Every saloon in the city was closed by mutual agreement of the proprietors. This action was brought about by the fact that the recent grand jury indicted all saloonkeepers for violating the Sunday law.

TROUBLE AT PANAMA.

Union and Non-Union Miners Have a Clash While Drinking.

Panama, Dec. 26.—A riot between colored and white union miners took place on the street here Saturday evening, in which one each of the opposing forces was seriously, if not fatally wounded. The colored men are celebrating Christmas on a big scale. They made big wages and were spending their money freely. The union miners also received their funds from the state union. Both sides were drinking some, and each claimed the other was the aggressor in the riot. It started when all the soldiers were at mess, but they were quickly on the scene, and quelled the disturbance.

Charles Gilbert, a colored miner, received two bad scalp wounds and a stab in his left breast. Dave McGavie, a strike leader, got a serious cut on his head. Charles Ellison, secretary of the local union, was arrested for carrying a revolver. Several shots were fired. The city is heavily patrolled by Lieutenant Colonel Wells' men, and no more trouble is anticipated.

Five People Poisoned.

New York, Dec. 26.—Araph Noaf, a bartender employed by Mrs. Marie Zischner, who keeps a small hotel at Patterson, N. J., died yesterday from the effects of arsenical poisoning. The American people welcome the peace commissioners home and of their work at Paris say, "well done."

The Republican trusts that its readers all had a pleasant Christmas and that a happy New Year awaits them.

The fire crackers on the street Saturday evening proved a decided nuisance and one that could be dispensed with.

There was an unusual amount of drunkenness in Seymour Saturday night. It seems that there are those who think they can't pass Christmas without getting drunk. A drunken man is always disgusting and fully as much so at Christmas as at any other time. The "swearing off" period we suppose is now at hand.

A Christmas Celebration.

One of the prettiest Christmas celebrations that Jaktown has ever had was held in the old school house Friday afternoon. In response to the invitations given to the patrons and friends by their efficient teacher Miss Elizabeth A. Reinhart, the school house fairly trembled with the crowd. No pains had been spared to make the affair a pleasant one. The otherwise cheerless school house was beautifully decorated with cedar, holly, ferns, pictures and drapery and the entertainment rendered by the pupils could not have been surpassed. Miss Reinhart has a large and difficult school and all the patrons express themselves well pleased with her excellent work.

ALARM MANIFESTED.

The Scottsburg Lynching Disproved Generally.

The lynching of Marion Tyler at Scottsburg Friday night has been the theme for much talk and speculation the past three days. It is everywhere condemned and the people in and about Scottsburg are said to be much alarmed over the situation. The determination of Governor Mount and other authorities to use every effort possible to ascertain and bring the guilty parties to justice is sufficient cause for much uneasiness.

On Saturday residents of Scottsburg said that the mob was doubtless formed in that vicinity, but now it is understood that they say it was likely from Washington county. Every stranger that goes into Scottsburg now is suspected as a detective.

Prosecutor Honan and Judge Alpaugh of this judicial circuit were notified by the governor to use every means at their command to ferret out the lynchers. It is supposed that this was a mistake as Scottsburg is not in this circuit.

IN RUSTIC WAYS.

The blackbirds whistle all day long. A rhythmic gladness in their song. And night and morning down the lane Drifts by the cowbells' rude refrain.

The flicker dips on golden wings. And far across the meadow swings. The swallow skins in lines of grace Like to the curves that painters trace.

Above, below and everywhere A sense of living thrills the air. Spring's message through the silent sent. With earth and wood and sky is bent.

The hedgerow blossoms stain the sod. The south winds make the grasses nod. And woolly lambs in awkward play Down the green hillside ambling stray.

Along the blue horizon rim The lights and shadows sink or swim. And penciled faintly on the skies A ghostly half moon's crescent lies.

The blackbirds chant the whole day long. A rhythmic gladness in their song. And dusk and dawn along the lane Echoes the cowbells' rude refrain.

—Ernest McGaffey in Woman's Home Companion.

ONE GLASS OF WINE.

A Belief That It Changed the History of This Country.

It is said that a single glass of wine probably wrecked the Democratic party in 1860. The story is worth telling. After the breaking up of the national Democratic convention at Charleston the party in Georgia held a state convention. Great excitement prevailed. The leaders of the party could not agree. It was a critical period.

The majority report endorsed the seceders or bolters at Charleston, while the minority report opposed their action. The leading champion of the minority was Herschel V. Johnson, and his followers were confident that his eloquence and logic would carry the day.

It is quite likely that such would have been the case but for an unfortunate mishap. Ex-Governor Johnson began his speech before the noon adjournment on the second day and concluded after dinner.

Old men who remember that speech say that it was a powerful argument, and the impression gained ground that after the noon recess the speaker would demolish his opponents with a few eledge hammer blows.

But the overconfident friends of the minority report were doomed to disappointment. Johnson felt the strain of the morning session so much that he was unable to eat anything, and he took a glass of wine upon an empty stomach to strengthen himself. This was a fatal mistake. That one glass of wine proved changed the destiny of the nation!

The great orator resumed his speech, but the wine had nauseated him. He was hazy, verbose and unintelligible at times. His style and argument lacked vigor, consistency and positiveness. His friends looked at one another in despair. The men on the other side were exultant. It was evident that the speaker had damaged his own cause.

Then Howell Cobb and Henry R. Jackson followed each other for the majority report. They spoke with an air of expectant triumph and captured the convention.

The majority report was adopted. It is unnecessary to follow the history of the next few weeks. The national Democracy was completely disrupted and put two tickets in the field. Lincoln was elected and the country was plunged into a civil war. Had Johnson succeeded in inducing the Georgia convention to adopt his conservative ideas, it is safe to say that other southern states would have fallen into line with our commonwealth, and the national Democratic party would have remained united.

This is the story of what a little glass of wine did. It rained a great party, caused a disastrous war, and besides the loss of life cost the south over $4,000,000,000. Perhaps this is rather speculative, but there are many who believed it a generation ago.—Atlanta Constitution.

Too Great a Risk.

"James, if anybody inquires for me today, tell them I am not in."

"Yes, sir."

"There might possibly be one who would not have a bill," muttered the young man, "but I'll not risk it!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Petition Drafted to Dredge the Kankakee River for Forty Miles.

THE SOLDIERS' ORPHANS

Remembered by the Woman's Relief Corps—R. T. McDonald, a Well Known Fort Wayne Capitalist, Dies at Dallas—Assistant Postmaster General Perry S. Heath at Louisville. Morocco, Ind., Dec. 26.—B. J. Gifford has drafted a petition for a drainage district of 120,000 acres, covering the west half of the Kankakee marsh. Those principally interested are Nelson Morris of Chicago, Brown brothers of Crown Point, General Shelby and Mr. Gifford. The plan involves the dredging of forty miles of the Kankakee river.

ORPHANS REMEMBERED.

Woman's Relief Corps Provide for the Children in Knightstown Home. Knightstown, Ind., Dec. 26.—The Indiana Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home yesterday was the scene of Christmas festivities. Everything that could be done to gladden the hearts of 680 orphans and gratify the natural craving for home and parental love at this time was done. The cook had been busy many days preparing a dinner to satisfy even the extravagant demands of children. The children's Santa Claus was Miss Etta Houk of Westfield, Miss Lucinda Taylor of Indianapolis, and Miss Eliza Faulk of Knightstown, who composed the Christmas committee of the W. R. C. Many presents were received from friends of the orphans besides those provided by the noble women of the W. R. C.

R. T. McDONALD.

Well-known Fort Wayne Capitalist Expires at Dallas, Tex.

Fort Wayne, Dec. 26.—Word was received here Saturday that R. T. McDonald of this city had died at Dallas, Tex., of double pneumonia. He was the most conspicuous figure in the business affairs of this city and in the city's business to the outside world. He was 49 years old, and leaves a wife and one daughter. He served in the civil war, and rose from a clerk to be one of the most energetic and influential business men in the country. He had many investments throughout the country. His investments in this city included the White National bank, the Fort Wayne Electric corporation, Artificial Ice company, New Avenue hotel and Elkhart Block. It is supposed he carried $200,000 life insurance. His wife reached his bedside a few hours before his death.

RUNNING A BARBERSHOP.

Expelled Methodist Minister Sues His Flock For Back Salary.

Rising Sun, Ind., Dec. 26.—A suit has been filed by the Rev. A. W. Stout, who was expelled from the church by the Indiana Methodist Episcopal conference, against the trustees of the Methodist churches of Hartford, Milton, New Hope, Mt. Pleasant and Mt. Carmel, of this county. Mr. Stout alleges in his complaint that he entered into a contract with the defendants about Oct. 1, 1896, to preach at the various Methodist churches in the Hartford circuit of the Moore's Hill district in consideration of $500 a year; that he again on Oct. 1, 1897, entered into another contract with them for $500, but the defendants refused to pay him. The case will come up at the next term for trial. Mr. Stout is conducting a barbershop here since his expulsion.

Township Without a School.

Lawrenceburg, Ind., Dec. 26.—Center township, Noble county, this state, is noted as being the only township in Indiana that is entirely without schools. The township is small, and the town of Albion, which it includes, has fine schools, but is under municipal government and entirely distinct from township management, hence the trustee of the township has no schools under his jurisdiction, but must collect the taxes and turn them over to the corporation of Albion, where all pupils of the township attended the school.

Mrs. Black Acquitted.

Muncie, Ind., Dec. 26.—Mrs. Lavina Black was acquitted in ten minutes late Saturday afternoon by the jury that has been hearing the evidence against her for killing farmer John L. Bailey. The first ballot was unanimous for acquittal, the only controversy being that some wanted to make the verdict due to the plea of insanity, but this was discarded without argument, and there was simply a general verdict of not guilty.

Was Once Nurse at Earlham.

Richmond, Ind., Dec. 26.—Hannah Jones, aged 84, died here Saturday. The deceased was born in Hartford county, Md., Dec. 5, 1814. She came to Richmond in 1833 and has ever since resided here. For many years she was the nurse at Earlham college and also served as the matron of the Wayne county orphan's home.

Going to Cuba.

Muncie, Ind., Dec. 26.—Charles F. W. Neely, for many years proprietor of the Muncie News, and at present a member of Governor Mount's staff, left Saturday to accompany Major Rathbone to Cuba to remain in the government postoffice service. Major Rathbone is commander of posts, and Mr. Neely will be one of his chief assistants.

—From the "Household," in Demorest's Magazine for January.

Harper's Magazine for January is especially valuable for a long list of articles of contemporary interest. Lieutenant S. A. Staunton opens the number with an account of the "Naval Campaign of 1898 in the West Indies," illustrated by Charlton T. Chapman. An article by H. W. Wilson treats of the "Naval Lessons of the War," and Prof. Albert Bushnell Hart contributes an interesting historical account of "Brother Jonathan's Colonies." Other articles of critical and historical nature are: "The Weakness of the Executive Power in Democracy," by Henry Louis Nelson, and "Fifty Years of Francis Joseph," by Sydney Brooks. Captain T. C. S. Speedy, under the title "A Glimpse at Nubia," with illustrations by R. Caton Woodville, describes the life and customs of the natives of the Mahdi's country, and Sidney Whitman gives us a glimpse of "The Sultan at Home," illustrated by Harry Penn.

NO ROOM TO CRITICISE

The Columbus Police Force a Little Late Finding Out That They Wanted Baker and Harris.

The Columbus police authorities seem to have just found out that they wanted Harry Baker and George Harris, the two young fellows arrested here nearly a week ago by Policeman Hopewell and a railroad detective. They were held here three days and wide notice given of their arrest and detention. They were visited while in jail here by railroad detectives and a detective from Cincinnati but they were not wanted by any of them. After they were released and gone word came from Chicago to hold them as they were parties probably wanted there. That word came too late. Saturday evening the Columbus police found out that probably they wanted them for stealing a brace of revolvers from Louis Vonfange's store, sometime before they were jailed here, and gave vent to some harsh criticism because the authorities here did not hold them longer for their benefit whether they had been so requested or not. The length of time it took them to find out they wanted Baker and Harris leaves little room for them to be critical.

Mr. Vonfange came down Sunday evening and identified the revolvers taken from the two crooks and they were turned over to him.
